

I Said Never Again (but Here We Are)

Rachel Stevens

One, two, three, four
I said no, no never
We don't go together
Oh, I really couldn't take anymore
Now it's two weeks later
I feel such a traitor
Oh, I let you in my back door
You're the one who's creeping
Rough love's so deceiving
I said never again but here we are
I'm your current sweetness
You're my only weakness
I said never again but here we are
Now, I don't rush in
I bite my lip and let you know
I really like the game you play
I'd be better off without you
But I can't live without you
No, am I ever gonna break away
You're the one who's creeping
Rough love's so deceiving
I said never again but here we are
I'm your current sweetness
You're my only weakness
I said never again but here we are
Yeah
I tried to run but I don't get too far
'Cause I can't let go
I can't take no more
Boy, I want you so
No, I can't let go
I can't take no more
And I want you so
One, two, three, four
You're the one who's creeping
Rough love's so deceiving
I said never again but here we are
I'm your current sweetness
You're my only weakness

I said never again but here we are
You're the one who's creeping
Rough love's so deceiving
I said never again but here we are
I'm your current sweetness
You're my only weakness
I said never again but here we are
I said never again, I said never again
I said never again but here we are
Never again, never again
I told you never to play that new guitar
