

Saviour

Bedemon

Somewhere between my sleep

Somewhere beneath my skin

 In places I can't see

Something is known to be a sin

 Hiding inside my eyes

 Burning from deep within

 Something that needs a lie

 Trying to turn into a sin

Rescue me before I lose control

Rescue me from this fire in my soul

There's only you who can stop me from falling

 I need a saviour, need my saviour

 Rescue me before I lose my head

 Rescue me from the sight of regret

'Cause only your love can stop me from wanting

 I need a saviour, you're my saviour

Knocking behind my door

 Asking to be let in

 Something I have ignored

 Wanting to be a sin

It's been around for so long

 And waiting to begin

 I know that it's so wrong

 Can't let it be a sin

Rescue me before I lose control

Rescue me from this fire in my soul

There's only you who can stop me from falling

 I need a saviour, need my saviour

 Rescue me before I lose my head

 Rescue me from the sight of regret

'Cause only your love can stop me from wanting

 I need a saviour, you're my saviour
