Tegan and Sara

I've got grounds for divorce
It's in my blood, this divorce
I'll separate everybody
I need distance from your body
Oh, I deserve this anguish on my houseSo can't do it, you cannot follow me
I can do it, you cannot follow me
So can't do it, you cannot follow me
So can do it, you cannot follow me
I can do itI've got grounds for recourse
Your lungs fill with discourse
You separate from my body
You need consistence from somebody
Oh, I deserve this anguish on my houseSo can't do it, you cannot follow me
I can do it, you cannot follow me
So can't do it, you cannot follow me
I can do it, you cannot follow me
