

Bombastic Love

Britney Spears

I, I'm here to testify that you're the only one I belong to
I don't know where to start, it turned into an art
Not to show the world that it was you
Who made me realize not to compromise
The fact that you and I should meet
(I know we're gonna get, know we're gonna get, get) Bombastic love, so fantastic
Where I'm completely yours and you are mine
And it's gonna be exactly like in a movie
When we fall in love for the first time Don't know why I feel so insecure
I never understood what its good for
I've gotta make sure that weakness won't stop me again
I can't sit and wait anymore
You made me realize not to compromise
The fact that you and I should meet
(I know we're gonna get, know we're gonna get, get) Bombastic love, so fantastic
Where I'm completely yours and you are mine
And it's gonna be exactly like in a movie
When we fall in love for the first time It's gonna be bombastic love
Everything is gonna be alright
When I'm yours and you are mine
It's gonna be fantastic love
When I wake up everything is still the same
And you don't even know my name
(Ah ah, ah ah, ah ah) I know it's gonna be Bombastic love, so fantastic
(Ah ah)
Where I'm completely yours and you are mine
And it's gonna be exactly like in a movie
(Ah ah)
When we fall in love for the first time I know we're gonna get, know we're gonna get, get
Bombastic love, so fantastic
(Bombastic love, ooh yeah)
(Ah ah)
Where I'm completely yours and you are mine
And it's gonna be exactly like in a movie
(Exactly like in the movies baby)
(Ah ah)
When we fall in love for the first time
