All I Want

Leona Naess

All I want is the king of stone
Who's got me sprung and then thrown
Maybe it was the drinking that had me thinking
Baby I was in love with you
But I think you'll find that it wasn't the wine
But the way you sparkle and shineOh, will you be there?All I want is a king to love me
Well, then I think I'd be happy
With all this noise crashing through my head
I will be silent with him in my bedAll I want are the crowds to follow me home
So that I won't feel too alone
When I come home and I'm off the stage
And I have released all this rage
Leaving me unto an empty pageOh, will you be there?All I want is the world's approval
And to dance to every beat I move to
And I think that maybe then I could see
What they say they see in meAll I want is a touch of Marilyn
With the heart and soul of Steinem
And I think that maybe then I could feel
What they see in meAll I want is a king to love me
Well, then I think I'd be happy
With all this noise crashing through my head
I will be silent with him in my bedAll I want is the world's approval
And to dance to every beat I move to
And I think that maybe then I could see
What they say they see in meAll I want is
All I want is
All I want is
All I want is
Everything, everything

Songwriters
Naess, LeonaPublished by Lyrics Â© Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/