One For The Road

Funeral For A Friend

There are miles left to walk
And this desert never lies
A broken bottle's on the floor
The cigarette kisses on the walls
Did you forget to call?
To find your way back home
I pour another drink
You find yourself alone
And with the truth I feel inside
Could you believe me?
That I could wait here all my life
For you to find me
Faces pass me by
And these pictures never lie to me
A broken bottle's on the floor
And all this writing on the wall
Did you forget to call?
To find your way back home

I pour another drink
You find yourself alone
And with the truth I feel inside
Could you believe me?
That I could wait here all my life
For you to find me
Pass me by, never lie
Pass me by, never lie
Lie, lie, lie, lie
(Lie)
You never lie
(Lie)
You never lie
(Lie)
You never lie
(Lie)
You never lie
