

Hip Hop Medicine (feat. Dustin Tavella)

Souleye

Verse

I had a dream with my perfect picture in it /
Never thought that tinted widows /
Would become a necessity / I realized as a young guy /
How it all ties together in an intricate weave /
Now I dot my eyes and cross my T's /
Self educated out of a town of boredom I made it /
Made it meaning I got a hold on something other /
Then what I thought I could have had /
Or would've wanted to go explain /
And a coulda woulda shoulda attitude is not my aim /
While the world seems out of order /
I investigate my own inadequacies /
Till I believe their no longer part of me /
And once I do Iâ€™™ on to the nexus /
Of this it's the connection that I'm looking for /
Keeping the mind open sober or smoking /
He quit quitting he's taking a long break /
He's gone a long way far from where he use to be /
It takes a lot of strength faith and ingenuity /
To learn to slow down the mind when its racing /
Consumed with what chasing forget the destination /
I'm delivering cut out the middle man /
Raw independent hip hop /
That's what where giving them

Verse

Visualize use your inner eye /

Some call it the third chakra provocative words /
I'm not gonna slur all done with the mumbling fun /
A little moment to breath the mark of the beast /
Removed as easy as 1-2-3 /
For some though its not as simple as a drum roll /
It's ineffable like mother Mary holding on /
To the holiest hands of the golden child /
With a double rainbow above or beyond /
The psychedelic can't even utter or wonder /
What it's like to be like Mike or Christ right /
Iâ€™m out of my mind when I write /
Its nice it livens it up /
My frames are vintage old age Indian English /
I wonder what's the day any way /
Do you know what it would be like /
To be in the presence of another dimensional being /
Let me know it's the reason I'm Emceeing /
