

Human Beings

Bertl Muetter, Dirk Rothbrust, Lauren Newton & Tho

It is only love I feel
That will give us peace of heart In my hour of desperate need
I feel closer to the one Oh, but why? Please human being
If you bleed they will say it was destined
They'll be punchin' tickets
For the minute if you fall out of line
Desperate, desperate Tell me is it death you feel
That will bring you peace of life? Who wants
Tell me you're one of us
Tell me you're one
Tell me you're one of us
Tell me you're one When you lose your self esteem
That's when love dies Oh, please human being
If you bleed they will say that it's destined
They'll be punchin' tickets
For the minute if you fall out of line
We're mere human beings, we die
So, so desperate desperate Well I feel
When you've reached number one
You look like you're puffing but
Really only blocking the sun
Blocking the sun
Blocking the sun
Blocking the sun We're mere human beings, we die
It's destined
They'll be punchin' tickets
For the minute you fall out of life We're mere human beings, we die
We're mere human beings, we die
Desperate
It's destined We're mere human beings, we die
Desperate
It's destined, destined
