

Have You Ever

Jaheim

Have you ever?
Common
Have you ever
Think about itHave you ever
Thought of what you did
When you were a kid
As you reminisce?Have you ever
Thought about your life
Thought you paid a price
Casue it wasn't right?
Have you everEver tell the truth but lied
Held back when you shoulda cried
Didn't say it when
You shoulda said goodbyeMeant something but didn't say
Said something but didn't mean
Seems like we all been through itEver let the people get away
Ever look back
And wish you could get back
How it was back in the dayEver had a girl
You wouldn't budge
Instead of telling them how much
You'd be true with lovingHave you ever ever
Or am I the only one
Tell me have you ever
Looked back on the
Things that you've doneHave you ever
Thought of what you did
When you were a kid
As you reminisce?Have you ever
Thought about your life
Thought you paid a price
Casue it wasn't right?
Have you everBeen up in the club
Buzzin' over one too many
Double shots of henney
She told you she was twenty-oneYou believed it
You and her leavin'
End up in a hotel suite then
Whoa, no gloveSlipped up now you gettin' that love

Next morning you wake up
Feeling stupid, I haveHave you ever been Caught up in a jam
You and your man clock tickin'
Make a quick decisionGot the ooh wee in your hand
Bust and you'll be doing 20 plus for sure
Drop it and run then the whole hood'll knowWhoa, time passed
Given dap behind the three inch glass
Raise my son's the only thing he asked
Have you ever, I haveHave you ever ever
Or am I the only one
Tell me have you ever
As you reminisce?Have you ever
Cause it wasn't right?
Have you ever
