

Where Will I Go

Hopsin

Hey, hey, hey

I've been feeling down but nobody knowsoh where will I go, lord where will I go, hey ya I just wanna kill, I just wanna killnobody knows what I feel, nobody knows what I feel I said I just wanna kill, I said I just wanna killyou can all burn in hell, don't fuck with me.The world I live in was never a pleasant paradise bullies used to hassle me, then laugh cause I was scared to fightI let the sun beam in on my skin but I can't bare the lightso I reside on the side of life with nocturnal parasites treated unfair as an infant, abnormal characteristics waiting for terror to visit as I stand there in the distance fucking arrogant bitches you were never there with assistance wish I could fly into the air with the pigeons let it begin, the story how I never fit in while the popular kids would run around with seventy friends I'm just a heavenly sent, waiting for the day that I rise so I could take my aggression and maybe place it aside I gaze at the sky with contacts placed in my eyes asking why do they only love me when my face is disguised I'm still waiting for signs but I doubt I'm a ever get them if I never see any proof, how can I represent them man.

Hey, hey, hey

I've been feeling down but nobody knows oh where will I go, lord where will I go, hey ya I just wanna kill, I just wanna kill nobody knows what I feel, nobody knows what I feel I said I just wanna kill, I said I just wanna kill you can all burn in hell, don't fuck with me.
I do this because I know it's what I'm destined to be I do this for the kids who were always messed with and teased I do this for the ones who were told they'll never succeed I do this for those who grew up as young and restless as me ya'll would always drink and go party with your crew in the nighttime doing shit nobody would ever do in their right mind then when you got a little older you hit a fine line with an accidental kid struggling with a nine to five you always thought that I was so stupid to write rhymes thinking I would never make it and lose with the white eyes but the formula I created proved I was Einstein now I've done more shit then you'd ever do in a lifetime since elementary, you'd belittle me, show no sympathy hurt me mentally, but you never had the sense to see that your desire to be cruel was fire to my fuel, would inspire me to rule the world until I was cool.

Hey, hey, hey

I've been feeling down but nobody knows
oh where will I go, lord where will I go, hey ya
I just wanna kill, I just wanna kill
nobody knows what I feel, nobody knows what I feel I said I just wanna kill, I said I just wanna kill
you can all burn in hell, don't fuck with me.

I ain't gonna take your shit I've already lost my mind, lost my mind you driving me crazy o that it makes me cry, makes me cry out of you existing please send me a sign because all the rage that's stored in me is eating me alive, help me out.

I've been feeling down but nobody knows
oh where will I go, lord where will I go, hey ya
I just wanna kill, I just wanna kill
nobody knows what I feel, nobody knows what I feel I said I just wanna kill, I said I just wanna kill
you can all burn in hell, don't fuck with me.

Sometimes I wonder what the hell your problem is why must you love to see me this low, won't you just let me live sometimes I wonder what the hell your problem is why must you love to see me this low, won't you just let me live.
