

Voice of Unreason

Cryptopsy

Ossuary for the misinformed
You'd end up being amazed
At what you'd see inside
The whisps of knowledge denied
And to think that someone's implied
It's a better place to reside
Take that voice of unreason
Asked that question
About the chaos
That lies dormant within
Have pondered through a pond
Of useless information
Fooled, tricked
But I'm slowly coming around
Fell for it once, never again
Ignorance is bliss
For the miner of fools gold
Can't teach a dog, that's too old
The motherfucker'll take a bite of the poison
Indoctrinate unfiltered lore
Teaching
Learning
Absolutely nothing
Intravenously force fed
A slave state of intelligence
Meant to break these bonds at some point
How about now
The bottom line
I've saved you the time
Wasted on a lost cause
No longer
