Purpose â€“ Written by Zabbai

Intro:
There's gotta be
There's gotta be
There's gotta be

Chorus:
Theres gotta be, gotta be, gotta be more than this
Cause I cant take no more, of what the world's feeding me
Tell me is it worth it, am I worth it
Do I gotta purpose, a little purpose
I just gotta know, I gotta know
Do I gotta purpose

Verse 1:
What was I made for, why am I here?
I feel like every night im fillinâ€™ this pillow with tears
Drippin down my face, and yeah I got a home but still feelin outta place
I ainâ€™t never had a place, Im dinner without a plate, inetuqueette
Maybe I should take this blade and Connecticut
So if it Connects to this flesh then I Cut
The demons in my ear yelling tellin me I suck
My homies tellin me to man up, lifes tough
An anchor sinkin but I'm with it in handcuffs, im drownin
But nobody can see it, like a living human being but yet they call it a fetus
Im steady being defeated, but they just wanna focus on my bad grades
But Weezy told me get that money flip the math page
And 2 Chainz threw away that school thing
I can do the same and whip around in a new range
Its all the same, get the money and blow it
Wether education did it or pitchin up on the corner
Strike 3, tell me what im livin for Money, Power, Respect, Women and getting in drawers?
Impressin people that will never wanna get involved
In my life, they just showin love
But what is love? Then my heart sinks
Then my heart speaks, and says

Chorus:
Theres gotta be, gotta be, gotta be more than this
Cause I cant take no more, of what the worlds feeding me
Tell me is it worth it, am I worth it
Do I gotta purpose, a little purpose
I just gotta know, I gotta know
Do I gotta purpose

Verse 2
Go, go, go, go
They be like, go shawty shawty go shawty shawty go
Dollars flippin as im drippin down this stripper pole
All they see is a body they donâ€™t see a soul and uh
Put me on social media to get some views
Heres a couple of likes, throw a couple of tweets
Cop a bottle of Moscato just to get in my sheets
Three shots of a macchiato gonna keep me from sleep
Cause all I dream about are my mistakes on repeat
Are you dealin with rape? Do you struggle with sex
I've been livid cause the both of em been givin me stress
I got character flaws, opposite of the best
Dudes tellin me that they care as they stare at my chest
People tell me I be open needa cover my breasts
People tell me I provoke em with the way that I dress
People tell me just get over it and get outcha mess
Then they quiet down when they see I'm messin with death
Need a second to breathe, ive been ready to leave
Family donâ€™t really care, they aint ready to grieve
Ready to bleed, who ready to bleed for me huh?
Deep in the sea im chocking to breathe giving up
Impressing people that'll never wanna get involved
In my life, they just showin love
But what is love? Then my heart sinks
Then my hear speaks, and says

Chorus:
Theres gotta be, gotta be, gotta be more than this
Cause I cant take no more, of what the worlds feeding me
Tell me is it worth it, am I worth it
Do I gotta purpose, a little purpose
I just gotta know, I gotta know
Do I have a purpose

Interlude:
Sunrise, as light swiftly spills trickling into your window

With a suttle yet, majestic luminace
Into the very depths of your soul
Darkness exits, as I enter

Verse 3
I'm the person you've been lookin for
No im the purpose you've been lookin for
No I'm the person with the purpose youâ€™ve been lookin for
And youâ€™ve searched high and low, getting high and low
Like where am I to go?
Counselors tell you its in your mind but no
The way that I designed you to be mine I know
Your broken
Im the only one that can fix you
Cause if you could fix you, you wouldâ€™ve fixed you
Liquor and drugs they will only addict you
The enemy lies he will only convict you
Enter my love and I will never evict you
My Son is the door, Holy Spirit will lift you
Gimmie ya worries and cares, ill gettem resolved
Fear, misery, tears, it'll dissolve
Aches, pains, even your flaws
Ill give you my all
Impressing people that'll never wanna get involved
In your life, they just showin love
But I am love, and my love sings
And when I sing, I say

Chorus
Theres so much, so much, so much more than this
And I can't take no more, of what I've seen in thee
You asked are you worth it?
I died for you because of ya purpose
Your soo worth it, let me show
Show you your purpose

Outro:
The Father has a kingdom for you
His name is Jealous Jealous
He burns with desire for you
Like a snowflake that falls from the sky
No one is the same as the other
So when the Father says that He loves all His children
There is one place in His heart that has your name written on it
And it grieves Him when you don't fill it

Seek'em, and you'll find'em
