

Fallen Angel

Venture

There may never be a tomorrow
As I walk across this land
My mind, it just seems to wonder
My life spilled across theÂ sand

Hate, save me,
Alone and I am falling,
Can you catch me now?
Save, hate me,
For I'm a fallen angel,
And I cannot fly without wings

I know the pain is coming
This emptiness that I feel
I lie awake in silence
I think the end is finally here

Â Hate, save me,
Alone and I am falling,
Can you catch me now?
Save, hate me,
For I'm a fallen angel,
And I cannot fly without wings

Nothing seems to comfort me
And nothing will suffice
Too many of my darkest days
Help me find the light
I'm my own worst enemy
Just one more sleepless night
Somebody save me from myself
Somebody help me save my life

Hate, save me,
Alone and I am falling,
Can you catch me now?
Save, hate me,
For I'm a fallen angel,
And I cannot fly without wings
