

Don't Despair

Shakhan

You say you are very cold you know you are getting old Dont despair it's the end of the age life will soon turn a new page Youre the bride waiting for the groom
Hes coming so soon
Dont worry hes at the gate
He wont be early he wont be late.Dont let despair roll down your eyes look up into cloudy sky
Redemptions coming, youre gonna win
No longer to fight against sin.
Soon his face youre going to see Shining brightly, one in three Heaven thats where youll be free
Taken out of trouble his praises sing.
