Agent Orange

Pharoahe Monch

Please Lord forgive me for my sins
My life is all I have to give
Please Lord forgive me for my sins
My life is all I have to give
Damn you that lost the will to livePissed on the motherfucking White House lawn
I threw a rock, then I ran
'Cause I couldn't stand anymore within the grip of the man
Y'all wanna ask me who's saneThese biological gases are eating my brain
It's a political grab bag to rape mother earth
Thirty seconds after they bagged dad for what he's worth
Thousands will die now so millions can smile laterThis ain't the Rockford Files nigga, they stockpile data for satellites
Where you discuss who's style is greater
In this killing pool you playing it cool like Kyle Jada
When y'all ready to rock like Led Zep and Al QaedaWith weapons of mass destruction an hour later
What's your identity today?
You on some John F. Kennedy or Timothy McVeigh?
This Henessy done left me with a remedy to spray
For my identity your life is the penalty to pay, motherfuckerY'all ready to rock?
We ready to rock
Y'all ready to roll?
We ready to rollMy life is all I have to give
Please lord forgive me for my sins
My life is all I have to give
Damn you that lost the will to live
Trapped in the game just tryin' to win
Just tryin' to win, just tryin' to winIt's not a Vietnam song
I know women from desert storm who came back deformed
Missin' limbs and disease and they legs is numb
Chemicals twice as strong as agent orangeIt's messages in the bass drum, war goin' off in your mind
No man is safe from
Its not a Game Boy about the PlayStation, it's +Resident Evil+
When every President's a masonRobbin' y'all fools like?
And y'all inherited roots and don't know how to retrace them
Place them back face them facts
Disgraceful, faceless, tasteless actsPharoahe takes the authorities to court
Peep crime before it happens like +Minority Report+
And I will never be mentally defenseless
Cats be on the block, in the hood in the trenches sayin'Y'all ready to rock?

We ready to rock
Y'all ready to roll?
We ready to rollMy life is all I have to give
Please Lord forgive me for my sins
My life is all I have to giveY'all ready to rock?
We ready to rock
Y'all ready to roll?
We ready to rollDamn you that lost the will to live
Trapped in the game just tryin' to winY'all ready to rock?
We ready to rock
Y'all ready to roll?
We ready to rollLock, load into position
Rock, roll, it's primitive condition
Lock, load into position
Rock, roll, It's primitive conditionLock, load, rock, roll
Into position
We ready to rock
We ready to roll
