

Daybreak

Andrea von Kampen

[Verse 1]

I hate when he leaves
And the tears start
And I'm all alone
But I love that boy
So I wait for him
'Til he comes home There's a promise
In the sunrise
There's a promise
When the sun meets the sky [Chorus 1]
Oh stars and moon you can call it a night

Lay in your bed
Let the daytime arrive
He'll leave me again
And my heart will ache
But he always comes back to me
Like daybreak [Verse 2]
The night is so cold
And I just need
A hand to hold
I dream of blue skies
And never no never no never saying goodbye
