

Past Praying For

VersaEmerge

Crawling around me
Sleepless eyes
Your hands, they haunt me
Finger tipping down my spine. Heaven forbid, well aware of your sins.
In the wake I'll be just like the rest.
Tell the sun don't fall,
so we'll never forget.
Heaven forbid, well aware of your sins.
In the wake I'll be just like the rest.
Past praying for. Always kept quiet
Clenching my teeth.
Find me fighting the floor.
Raise me from my bones once more.
You're way past praying for. I wouldn't want to wake you from yourself
Doesn't sit in your stomach just quite right.
Toying with time
Lascivious stares and a dangerous rhyme.
