

Best You'll Do Tonight

Rodney Carrington

[Vers 1]

When you came in this bar tonight, heads began to turn

One by one the men walked up, everyone got burned

You were quiet a flirt in your mini-skirt, and brought the boys down to their knees

But you waited to long to pick one out, now it's just you and me[Chorus]

I may not be a millionaire and I ain't no movie-star

But you played "hard to get" to long and the good one's left the bar

I know you had intentions of going home with "mr.right", but it's last call for alcohol and I'm the best you'll do tonight[Vers 2]

Hey, we can leave in separate cars and no one has to know

I hope you don't live to far from here, my gastank's running low

But if all goes well and I close the deal and your looking for a date next week

You can come on back to the same old bar and i'll be sittin' in the same old seat[Chorus]

I may not be a millionaire and I ain't no movie-star

But you played "hard to get" to long and the good one's left the bar I know you had intentions of going home with "mr.right", but it's last call for alcohol and I'm the best you'll do tonight[Bridge]

I know I ain't that handsome and I drive a "beat-up" truck, I also know we better go before you sober up[Chorus]

I may not be a millionaire and I ain't no movie-star

But you played "hard to get" to long and the good one's left the bar I know you had intentions of going home with "mr.right", but it's last call for alcohol and I'm the best you'll do tonightBest you'll do tonight
