Belvedere

It happened oh so fast it takes me by surprise, it took me where I haven't been, way back it happened when I looked into your eyes I know it hurts to make a sin. Don't tell me how you don't expect and uprising I won't go, I can't explain that someone deep inside of me told me so. It happened oh so fast it makes me wanna lie, lights in my eyes they're sort of dim, I pictured feeling when my temperature it rised, sights when your high above the rim. Don't tell me how you don't expect a side effect i've hit low, I can't explain why someone deep inside of me told me so. YEAH!!!! didn't go my way it didn't fly. YEAH!!!! damn you'd never know unless you tried.
