

Acetate

Volcano Choir

I will harbor you around.
I may drive you down.
There are promises I'll make.
There are promises that I'll take away. But I won't beg for you on acetate.
I won't crawl on you to validate. Tear those numbers down,
I won't be having them around, for now. I'll be in the ocean,
I'll be out there for weeks.
I will never tolerize
I will never fortify. I'll be on the beach, I
T's where I have to be for peace.
I will never tolerize,
I will never fortify. I won't beg for you on acetate.
I won't crawl on you to validate.
Tear those numbers down,
I won't be having them around, for now. Shout, say it louder now.
The apple on the oranges ground.
No longer feeling tepid now.
Shout, say it louder now
