London Sun

Lunar Fiction

Here she comes
Here she comes again
Well it feels so good to have her home

I can't hide
What I feel inside
Well there's no sense in being alone

If I wake up every morning with the London sun in my eyes
Trying to express everything that I feel even though it's just a waste of my time
Every day is another game and I'm playing to get the world off my chest
Every day is another day and it's useless just like all the rest

Oh oh oh
Baby I don't wanna tell you what I'm really thinking
'Cause it hurts to see you cry
(Hurts to see you cry)
Maybe I should find a way to tell you what I wanna say
You know, you know I'm right
(Know, you know I'm right)

[2x]
'Cause everything I do I do for you
Everything I know I know I know
Everything I do I do for you
(Lay it on the line)

Wash those hands
Clean to understand
Now you know our lives are on the line

Step inside
Tell me what you find
Am I everything you hoped I'd be?

If I wake up every morning with the London sun in my eyes
Trying to express everything that I feel even though it's just a waste of my time
Every day is another game and I'm playing to get the world off my chest
Every day is another day and it's useless just like all the rest

Oh oh oh
Baby I don't wanna tell you what I'm really thinking
'Cause it hurts to see you cry
(Hurts to see you cry)
Maybe I should find a way to tell you what I wanna say
You know, you know I'm right
(Know, you know I'm right)

[2x]
'Cause everything I do I do for you
Everything I know I know I know
Everything I do I do for you
(Lay it on the line)

Oh, the lights go out in London
Oh, the clocks turn back again
I can see the lion now
See the tunnel started caving in

Baby I don't wanna tell you what I'm really thinking
'Cause it hurts to see you cry
(Hurts to see you cry)
Maybe I should find a way to tell you what I wanna say
You know, you know I'm right
(Know, you know I'm right)

[2x]
'Cause everything I do I do for you
Everything I know I know I know
Everything I do I do for you
(Lay it on the line)
