Your Man

Clint Crisher

Whats up boys? Ya know,
Giving head is like eating sunflower seeds
You just put it in your mouth
You suck it, you get the nut
Then you spit it out if thats what you doIf I notice it, I gotta say it
Otherwise its not fair to you
Dont go away sugar
I want you to stay
Like every sun moon and starIts just me CC
No faking it here
Im jonesing for you
And need to tie you up
Im gonna give you all I got
Ya know, Im so fucking hot and super duperI am what you say I am
I am what you think I am
I am what you say I am
I am what you think I am
Im your man, Im your manThe erratic episode of the heart
Are the beat of a pull on my harp
Ring not knowing the day
The vampires, leaders are sleepers of the daySo Ill see you in the night
And lets go roller blade
Lets go play, grab the lube
And some champagne tooIts like missing you, when you need to be kissing
This hot, naked man and his long-neck giraffe
Especially for you, especially for you!I am what you say I am
I am what you think I am
I am what you say I am
I am what you think I amIn the night
Im gonna find you boy
In the night
Im gonna bite youDont go away, I want you to stay
I need you around not just in my mind
When I wake up from this cluster
Of boys and fans and have some time to spend
Baby you must see Im always being true to you
And Im down on the ground, I wanna please
Dont go away baby, Im on my knees
Drop your pants and enjoy, a suck and a bite for you too

Not just sometimes, but forever, forever, forever
ForeverI am what you say I am
I am what you think I am
I am what you say I am
I am what you think I am
I am what you say I am
I am what you think I am
I amCant get you out of my head
Your smile is all I think about
Every moon and sunset
I cant help falling in love
Sugar darling, some things are just meant to be Set me free, lets be
Forever, forever, foreverI am what you say I am I am what you think I am
Some things are just meant to be
I am your manIm your man
Im your man
