

Smaller Pieces

Dusty Drake

I knew when you left me that you'd be back someday
And I know there's a chance you'll leave again but that's one I've gotta take Girl, after all what have I got to lose
The worst that you can do is break my heart into Smaller pieces, bigger teardrops
Colder lonely, hell, why not
What's another goodbye
Might as well give it one more try
The worst that you can do
Is break my heart into smaller pieces Darling, come on in, what are you waiting for
You might hurt me again but you can't hurt me anymore
So tell me that you love me and I'll tell myself it's true
The worst that you can do is break my heart into Smaller pieces, bigger teardrops
Colder lonely, hell, why not
What's another goodbye
Might as well give it one more try
The worst that you can do
Is break my heart into smaller pieces Hell, why not
What's another goodbye
Might as well give it one more try
The worst that you can do
Is break my heart into smaller pieces I knew when you left me that you'd be back someday
