All Girl Band

LaBelle

To resurrect ourselves
We disembowel our saints
We never underestimate
The destructive power of changeWe find another way
We dream up stupid shit
To while away our days
There's time for everythingWe're always searchin' for what's wrongNo, never, so run now, no, never, it's all wrong
Soothe me, lover in my heart, left me nowhere
It's all wrong, soothe me, lover in my heartWe dance around the wire
A bunch of piranhas
We dress ourselves in words
Armed and overheardWe're always searchin' for what's wrongNo, never, so run now, no, never, it's all wrong
Soothe me, lover in my heart, left me nowhere
It's all wrong, soothe me, lover in my heart
So soothe me now
