Section 25 [Younger Yesterday]

The Polyphonic Spree

Well, everybody tries
To keep themselves alive
You were younger yesterday
I'm feeling not so greatWell, everybody cries
I think I may get under fine
I was younger yesterday
And I'm feeling not so greatWe're laying down in there
The days go by in my head
Yeah, faking if I can't sleep
And then together we can get some reliefAnd now you know you're beautiful
You'd always wonder
Now you know every thing's alrightAnd now you know you're beautiful
You'd always wonder
Now you know together we're alrightWe're marching left to right
I think it's little bit aside
Yeah, I've always felt like this
And I think it's got a lot to do with a soundOf everybody's sighs
I think we can create a line
But we are standing and are straight
'Cause together we can make it greatAnd now we know we're beautiful
We've always wondered
Now we know together we're alrightAnd now we know we're beautiful
We've always wondered
Now we know with everyday
Everyday is a fightYou will make it right
You were misunderstood
The world wantsYou too make it right
We were misunderstood
The world wants loveLove, love, love, love
Love, love, love, love
