But It's Not Everything

Kaedyn Kashmir

Maybe it's not too late
To be safe, to be safe
To let it all in

Been hailing now for days
Everything, anything
To get it all in

Push past now. Get through somehow
To the machines that seem to

Breathe for you they Breathe for you Believe in you
when you're running on empty
They plead with you
They bleed into you
But it's not everything

WHen sitting on the ledge
Paper planes though my veins
With no bets to hedge

Push pin down
Your dreams somehow
Capture images that

Think for me They think for me
Then ache for me
When I'm running on empty
They take from me
They break in me
But It's not everything

Please
And I'll ache for you
I'll take for you
I'll bleed for you
I will let you go gently
I'll plead your case
Let's leave this place

Cause we are everything

Come on Breathe
Come on breathe, breathe, Babe
Cause maybe it's not too late
To be safe, to be saved
To let it all in.
