Femininity

Eric Benet

Oh, what you do to me, yeah yeah
Quietly your silhouette approaches me
A vision far too lovely to define, hey yeah
Tenderly you take complete control of me
The feminine seduction of body, soul and mind, yeah
Touch me and I feel your femininity
Girl, you're the lady women want to be
Softly you move when you're making love to me
Love me every night with femininity
A child of innocence is how you look at me
But it's the woman's touch that makes it feel so right, so right
Your lips consume my deepest sensitivity
It feels so good it makes me wanna cry
Touch me and I feel your femininity
Girl, you're the lady women want to be
Softly you move when you're making love to me
Love me every night with femininity
Oh, oh, oh, femininity
Oh, femininity

Let me feel myself inside you once again
I love the way you say it's just for me
A lady in the purest sense of elegance
But when the lights go down girl
You're making love strong, wild and free
Touch me and I feel your femininity
Girl, you're the lady women want to be
Softly you move when you're making love to me
Love me every night with femininity
Touch me and I feel your femininity
Girl, you're the lady women want to be
Softly you move when you're making love to me
Love me every night with femininity
I like the way you take control of me
You have a little certain quality
Not many girls would ever dare to be
The lady that you are femininity
I like the way you take control of me
