

Open Fields of Grace

Jackie Evancho

Last night I saw you running
In the open fields of grace
No longer were you broken, or in pain
The wind blew kisses through your hair
You laughed with beauty, unaware
I wish I could be there with you
In the open fields of grace
In the open fields of grace
Last night I heard you singing
In the open fields of grace
No longer were you silent, or afraid
Your voice was innocent and strong
As you proclaimed love's ancient song
Oh teach me how to sing along with you
In the open fields of grace
In the open fields of grace
When tears are but a memory
We'll run to God like children
Finally free
In the open fields of grace
In the open fields of grace
Dancing in God's delight
As night fades away
Last night I saw you running
In the open fields of grace
Someday I'll be running there with you
