Shuffle Your Feet

Black Rebel Motorcycle Club

Time won't save our souls
Time won't save our souls
Time won't save my soul, noWell, everything is going down
Nothing seems to feel same
No one seems to know my name
No one seems to go my wayBut who knows if I'll see you again
But who knows if I'll see you againOne more for the soul mate dreamers
One more for the wicked man
One more for the peaceful protest
That keeps the war in demandWho knows if I'll see you again
Who knows if I'll see you againTime won't save our souls
And time won't save my soul, no
Time won't save our souls
Time won't save my soul, noI never thought I'd see it coming
I never thought I'd ever know
Nothing seems to take me over
Nothing seems to let me goWho knows if I'll see you again
Who knows if I'll see you again
