Since I Lost You

Tevin Campbell

Oh yeah, oh girl, oh girl
Oh girl, oh girl, oh yeah, yeah
Listen, babyPraying for the sunshine
Standing out in the rain
Trying to forgive myself
For causing you painWe used to have a sweet thing
With the sweetest girl around
It's hard to keep on going on
Knowing that I let you downBluebirds don't sing
Skies above are gray
What can I do?
I'm so lonely without youBring back your smile
Make my gray skies blue
Nothing compares to youSince I lost you, girl
You know my heads been spinning 'round
Ever since I lost you, girl
You know my heart can't be foundLiving life without you, girl
Ain't no sun up in my sky, no, no, no
Ever since I lost you, girl
I've been crying, crying, cryingWinter turns to springtime
Flowers bloom after rain
What if we tried starting out
All over againI just can't be giving up
Your love without a fight, no, no, no
Girl, you know I still believe
That we can find the lightLook to the sun
Open up your heart
Love finds a way
Gonna see a brighter dayIf you believe
Won't you take my hand
And give me another chanceSince I lost you, girl
You know my heads been spinning 'round
Ever since I lost you, girl
You know my heart it can't be foundLiving life without you girl
Ain't no sun up in my sky, no, no, no
Ever since I lost you, girl
I've been crying, crying, cryingI want you back
Baby, take my hand
Let's give love another chanceSince I lost you, girl

You know my heads been spinning 'round
Ever since I lost you, girl
You know my heart it can't be foundLiving life without you, girl
Ain't no sun up in my sky, no, no, no
Ever since I lost you, girl
I've been crying, crying, cryingSince I lost you, girl
You know my heads been spinning 'round
Ever since I lost you, girl
You know my heart it can't be foundLiving life without you, girl
Ain't no sun up in my sky, no, no, no
Ever since I lost you, girl
I've been crying, crying, cryingEver since I lost you, girl
I've been crying, crying, crying
