

Nothing to Lose

Jeremy Fisher

Life is just a speck in the sky
Teaspoon of honey, a blink of an eye
It's short, it's small, it's tiny, it's easily lost

Time is the secret we never can tell
Burns like a brush fire, rings like a bell
The night and day are dancing around in a waltz

But you don't need to know all the steps to get up and move, Oh

You, You got nothing to lose, Oh
You, you got nothing to lose

I may not have all the things that I want
May not even know all the things that I've got
I'm just on a one way ticket around the sun

But we all gotta leave at the end of the night
We all gotta go when the music has died
So you'd better get up and sing a song that's your own

Cause you don't want to let the piper call out your tune, Oh

You, you got nothing to lose, Oh
You, you got nothing to lose

Everything's alright okay, it's good enough
Everything's alright okay
Everything's alright okay, it's good enough
There just ain't no such thing as long enough

Spinning from darkness and into the light
It don't make no difference, there's no wrong or right
The biggest lie of them all is thinking you know the truth, Oh

You, you got nothing to lose, Oh
You, you got nothing to lose

You care for yourself, and you can't just be nobody's fool, Oh
You, you got nothing to lose

You got nothing to lose

[Oh Oh, Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh][4x]
