My Heart Is Burning

Geron Davis

My heart is burning
My spirit is yearning
To worship you and your holy name

No one is worthy
Of the power and the glory
No one but you and your holy name

Lord there is a passion burning in me
A hunger that consumes all other Longing just to capture your attention and let you draw me close into your throne room above

My heart is burning
My spirit's yearning
To worship you and your holy name

You are the one I've fallen for
You are the one that I adore
You are the love thatâ€™s captured my heart
You are the fire and fresh desire
That makes me want to lift you high
You are the love thatâ€™s captured my heart
