King Of The Threshold

Soilwork

Choking on nothing
Hands turning cold
The deeper the mind goes
The deeper the holeI'm reaching a point where
No one else goes
My fate seems to be split in half
Can't control it at allWords turn to ashes
Comfort won't help
Pointless to reach out
I'm losing myselfAll I know is I wish this could end
Get rid of this feeling and stop to pretendLet me try to understand as
I've failed to be someone I'm not
It's so real, I've been fooled once again
I've been forced to feelIt's like I'm not present
It's like I'm not here
A voice calls with vengeance
I am lost with the fearSearching for meaning, searching within
The lust that was broken has vanished again
Feels like a set up with no one to trust
The pictures I'm seeing won't leave till they're lovedSo let me try to understand as
I've failed to be someone I'm not
It's so real, I've been fooled once again
I've been forced to feelAnd now I wonder what's become of me
Is it the truth that was found?
Whatever it is, I won't respect the sound
Of giving things upChoking on nothing
Hands turning cold
The deeper the mind goes
The deeper the holeI'm reaching a point where
No one else goes
My fate seems to be split in half
Can't control it at allLet me try to understand as
I've failed to be someone I'm not
It's so real, I've been fooled once again
I've been forced to feelSo let me
So let me
So let me
So let me
Fuck [Incomprehensible]
