Woo-well, I got a little woman

In Pinebluff, Arkansas

She was the sweetest little woman

That your men most ever saw

Gonna get up in the mo'nin

Baby, with the risin' sun

Woo-well, in the mo'nin

Baby, with the risin' sun

If the train don't run

Gonna be some walkin' done

My baby she's called me

She called me up on the phone

Woo-well, she called me

She called me up on the phone

She said, 'Daddy, daddy'

I don't jive, come you hurry home

My baby says, 'I'm tired goin' to bed and moan'

Hoo-well, she says, 'Tired of goin' to bed and moan'

She cryin', 'I ain't had no lovin', daddy

Daddy, since that you been gon'

Well, she says, 'I'm tired

Daddy, singin' these lonesome songs'

Woo-well, she says

'I'm tired of singin' these lonesome songs'

She say, 'I ain't even heard, daddy

'I ain't even heard you called

My baby said, 'I'm tired'

Daddy, hearin' my bedspring groan'

Hoo-well, she says

I'm tired a-hearin' my bedspring groan'

She said, 'I declare, if you want me, daddy

You better hurry home.~
