Your Fire

Claudio Niniano

Your fire

Dancing in the dark you will fight fight fight
Breaking all the rules you will cry cry cry
There's so much inside of you
And in the days you are going through

This fire will not leave you
As long as you face yourself
why feel ashamed

Dancing in the sun and on your time time time you beauty never dies but allways flys flys flys
Many things that you can do
In your glance there is something new

This fire comes and goes
But keep on loving yourself and don't be ashamed

Your song lingers in the air
Can you hear it even when it fades
More and more you're growing true
I can sense it in the way you move

This fire is your fire
Protect it from yourself
And don't be ashamed
Dancing in the dark you will fight fight fight
Your beauty never dies but allway flys flys flys
