

Caught Like A Fly

Falling In Reverse

(Spoken)

Attention, Attention Everyone!

I got a couple thinks that I would like to get off my chest!

Friends; Who the f**k needs 'em!

(Sung)

Caught like a fly

In a web of your lies,

Its truth be told now,

Or its meet your demise.

So how did it feel

When you held the knife

That you stuck right in my back

A thousand times?

Your grandfather would probably roll in his grave

If he knew of the person that you had became!

I will not just lay down and take this!

Not again! (Not again.)

Oh, you have left my heart black and blue,

Just like your father did to you.

How does it feel, knowing you're buried alive,

Seeing through bloodshot eyes,

You're left empty inside.

Where I was, strung out and drug through the mud,

I must agree,

You're just like me.

And when you die, I won't be at your wake.

No eulogy for me, just a smile on my face.

And while God might be busy with judging your soul,

I will have slept with the girl that you loved most.

You have left my heart black and blue,

Just like your father did to you.

How does it feel, knowing you're buried alive,

Seeing through bloodshot eyes,

Where I was, strung out and drug through the mud,

I must agree,

You're just like me!

Now, how does it feel, knowing you're buried alive,

Seeing through bloodshot eyes,
You're left empty inside.
Where I was, strung out and drug through the mud,
I must agree,
You're just like me!
(Spoken)
Im no f**king saint, but at least I dont f**king sing about it!
Oh, the audacity!
