Damn

Matchbox 20

This old world well
Don't make you wanna think, damn
This cold girl well
Don't she make you wanna scream, damnWhat's the matter girl
Well, don't you think I'm good enough?
This old heart's had a whole lot of breakin' down
She's got all these reasons in her headWell all that time she knew if I lied
You can bet she will
She's taken her time 'til I thought I would die
And I can't sit stillThings got turned 'round
Don't know where I started from, damn
I can't eat, can't sleep
Could have been a bigger man, damnWhat's the matter girl
Well, don't you think I'm bright enough?
This old man had a hard time getting here
You can leave your number at the doorWell all that time, she knew if I lied
You can bet she will
She's taken her time 'til I thought I would die
And I can't sit stillAnd there's nothing at all
Yeah there's nothing at all
Well there's nothing at all
To make her change her mind
To make her change her mind
To make her change herThis old house been quiet
Since, you went away, damn
Mixed up fixed out
Don't forget who got you here, damnWhat's the matter world
Well don't you see I opened up?
This whole part been played by another man
I pulled out the reason card insteadWell all that time, she knew if I lied
You can bet she will
She's taken her time 'til I thought I would die
And I can't sit stillSays she can find, the things that make up a life
I bet she will
She stays behind, I could stay here all night
I could stay here untilUntil there's nothing at all
Yeah there's nothing at all
Well there's nothing at all
To make her change her mind

To make her change her mind
To make her change her mind

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/