

Stay free

Reality Crisis

Hey, Hank who are you?
Who said that?
What's with the hat and the cain?
Are you really insane or is it just a game?
Something you ain'tHey, Hank what's up with the eyes?
Is it just a disguise, you know?
Something you're trying to hide
Something deep insideSo shut up, shut up
Put your denim on and stay free
And get up get up
Shake your leather off and stay freeHey, Hank what do you want back-off?
What's up with the cape?
With the ape that you raped?
And your heart full of hate?
Was it worth the steak?Hey, Hank is it true that you died?
Or is it simply a lie?
That you know you sacrificed a life
To the Gods up highSo shut up, shut up
Put your denim on and stay free
And get up get up
Shake your leather off and stay freeSo when you see me in my denim dream
You know, I play for keeps
You know, I'm trying just to keep it clean
Because I'm a freedom machine such a freedom machineTreasure
So shut up, shut up
Put your denim on and stay free
And get up get up
Shake your leather off and stay free
Gotcha
