Never Give It Up

John Newman

I wanna love you, but it just don't feel right
I really need it, but I can't stay the night
Cause you, oh,ohh you never give it up
You, oh ohh, you never give it up
Alrightyou say you'll wait for me, wait for me till i got home Sit me on the sofÃ¡ with the televisiÃ³n on Show me what, show me what, show me what you need
But the lover in your favourite film it's a different man to me'Cause
i don't feel that baby
i don't feel that baby
i don't feel that babyI wanna love you, but it just don't feel right
I really need it, but I can't stay the night
Cause you, oh, ohh you never give it up
you, oh,oh you never give it up
Oh Because
I wanna love you, but it just don't feel right
I really need it, but I can't stay the night
Cause you, oh, you never give it up Oh because
you, oh,ohh you never give it up
AlrightYou keep on calling me, calling me, calling me for hope
To be honest every time you call i'm busy I can't talk
You saying it you sayin it' saying it's alright
And if I do pick up your body you'll give it up tonightI don't feel that baby
I don't feel that baby
I don't feel that babyI wanna love you, but it just don't feel right
I really need it, but I can't stay the night
Cause you, oh, ohh you never give it up
you, oh,oh you never give it up
Oh Because
I wanna love you, but it just don't feel right
I really need it, but I can't stay the night
Cause you, oh, you never give it up Oh because
you, oh,ohh you never give it up
AlrightI wanna love you, but it just don't feel right
I really need it, but I can't stay the night
Cause you, oh, ohh you never give it up
you, oh,oh you never give it up

Because
I wanna love you, but it just don't feel right
I really need it, but I can't stay the night
Cause you, oh, you never give it up Oh because
you, oh,ohh you never give it up Alright
