

Love

Formation

You're lonely and you're scared Wise and nothing new you had it all at once
'till there was nothing left to lose took a payphone off the hook to wrap it round your neck to tie it and alone to ring someone instead Brother, my friend your pain is not the end take your needle off the deck spin that record once again oh, something's got to give yeah, something's got to give old enough to get it right young enough to try again they hate you on the street the people and beliefs count the holes in your clothes in your arms and in your dreams All people on the corner we watch them fall apart they put paper in our heads to take the love out of our hearts brother, my friend, your pain is not the end
take your needle off the deck
spin that record once again
oh, something's got to give
yeah, something's got to give
old enough to get it right
young enough to try again
love, love, love wins in the end over, over, over everything
love, love, love wins in the end over, over, over and again brother, my friend, your pain is not the end
take your needle off the deck you spin that record once again oh, something's got to give

yeah something's got to give
old enough to get it right
young enough to try again
love, love, love wins in the end
love, love, love over everything
love, love, love wins in the end love love love is everything

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <https://damnllyrics.com/>