

Soundcheck

Catfish and The Bottlemen

Maybe I don't act the way I used to
'Cause I don't feel the same about you
In fact, that's a lie, I want you And I raced through soundcheck
Just to meet you on your fag break
And you convinced me
To put life aside and want you And if only for the sake of it I could chill you out
And drive us through the night to your sister's
And you can fall asleep with my jacket as a cover
And wake up just to join me to smoke I wanted everything at once
Until you blew me out my mind
Now I don't need nothing Maybe I don't act the way I used to
'Cause I don't feel the same that I did
The fact that I lie because I want you And if only for the sake of it I could chill you out
And drive us through the night to your sister's
And you can fall asleep with my jacket as a cover
And wake up just to join me to smoke I wanted everything at once
Until you blew me out my mind
And now I don't need nothing I wanted everything at once
Until you blew me out my mind
And now I don't need nothing We'll be talking 'bout your background
And how it never left you much
Because you grew up in a small town
You'll appreciate it more
When you're done figuring your life out
And everything's fine We'll be talking 'bout your background
And how it never left you much
Because you grew up in a small town
You'll appreciate it more
When you're done figuring your life out
And everything's fine I raced through soundcheck
Just to meet you on your fag break
And you convinced me
To put life aside and want you I wanted everything at once
Until you blew me out my mind
And now I don't need nothing I wanted everything at once
Until you blew me out my mind
And now I don't need nothing
