

It Ain't Where You Been

Latimore

It ain't where you've been, it's where you're goin'
It ain't what you did, it's what you doin'
It ain't what you dealt, it's what you're dealin'
It ain't what you felt, it's what you're feelin'
It ain't where slept, it's where you're sleepin'Don't start feeling guilty baby about the things you might have done
Let not your heart be troubled, you're not the only one
Think about the future, I don't care 'bout your past
I don't have to be the first one, long as I'm the last
It ain't where you been, it's where you're goin'
It ain't what you did, it's what you doin'
It ain't what you dealt, it's what you're dealin'
It ain't what you heard, it's what you're hearin'
It ain't what you felt, it's what you're feelin'
It ain't where slept, it's where you're sleepin'Don't start feeling guilty baby about the things you might have
done
Let not your heart be troubled, you're not the only one
Think about the future, I don't care 'bout your past
I don't have to be the first one, long as I'm the last
It ain't where you been, it's where you're goin'
It ain't what you did, it's what you doin'
It ain't what you dealt, it's what you're dealin'
It ain't what you felt, it's what you're feelin'
It ain't where slept, it's where you're sleepin'It ain't where you've been, it's where you're goin'...
