

Desire

Mates of State

Someday you'll feel the way I feel
and though you might be brighter
you will not be shy again
Ooo, desire
Lying in a quiet back room
Careful 'cause the house could crack soon
And in the morning we can play this game
All the nights you masqueraded
But today you feel
So you made me wiser
I will not be shy again
Ooo, desire
Desire
Someday I will feel the way you feel and though I might be brighter
I will not be shy again
Desire
Desire
