

100%

Mariah Carey

I am a dream, just beginning truth is I prayed and you opened my eyes, and you revealed something to me suddenly I am no longer confined.
To a life that's defined by limits
I don't need no permission to live it Imma break through the door till I get in Everything that I got Immma give it 100%

and I ain't stoppin' till I reach the finish.
I'm a believer not just a dreamer
I'm givin everything I got
I'm a go-getter
100 Percenter

Undoubtedly I can reach the top
and I ain't gonna let nothing discourage or dissuade me
'Cause I'm walking out of here a champion either way babe
I am givin it 100 Percent
So go on put your ones up

If you're putting in a hundred put your ones up, ones up
If you know that this is something, put your ones up, ones up
If you really comprehend this, your ones up, your ones up
If you're walking into victory keep on shining
One hundred percent

You can only do it if you do it like I did
'Cause suffering ain't easy

But if you can turn your wounds into living proof that you've survived the fight and you no longer defined

To a life that's defined by limits
I don't need no permission to live it Imma break thru the door til I get in Everything that I got Imma give it 100 Percent and I ain't stopping till I reach the finish
I'm a believer not just a dreamer
I'm givin everything I got

I'm a go-getter
100 Percenter

Undoubtedly I can reach the top
and I ain't gonna let nothing discourage or dissuade me

(Nothing can discourage me)
'Cause I'm walking out of here a champion either way babe (Eh)

If ya gonna worry don't pray
You just keep the faith and listen to me

If you know that this is something, put your ones up, ones up (If you know you were)
If you really comprehend this feel, your ones up, your ones up (If you ever worked hard for something)
