

Now You Know (Death & 1/2 Prod. Rehearsal)

The Haunted

One last try. Unfinished promise, reach down deep inside. I give up the day I die at least this pains mine! We all die!

You and I!

Live a life

or live a lie! No retreat, no giving in, no spiritual surrender. Face the facts. Your life is pain, you're lost inside your mind. We all die!

You and I!

Live a life

or live a lie!

So now you know,
life's lesson has taught me well
I have no hopes. Worn down, broken and beat by society's lies.

New pride,

found in the struggle of your survival. We all die!

You and I!

Live a life

or live a lie! So now you know,
life's lesson has taught me well
I have no hopes. Facing yourself.

Realize that you're nothing.

Through the eyes of despair,
a new fire rises.

Life lived uncomparing,
you set your own standards.

In one final statement;

Do what thou wilt...! So now you know,

life's lesson has taught me well

I have no hope... Demonseed, rise in me! (x2)
