

Let's Have An Earthquake

Vanna

I am no stranger to loss and I've seen more than my eyes can bear
We are both love and hate and like my heart can take it Like dust to the air
Our pasts they crawl like vines Held high and left for the wind to taste
But our names
mean nothing if we fail And we will run ourselves with or without you Make the Earth Shake We will make the earth shake
make the earth
make the earth
make the earth shake
