

Meanest Evil

Krisiun

Awaiting the downfall of this kingdom final inquisition arise drowing the dead on blessed water dissecated priest over the altar blood in his eyes worms in his vine monuments of prophanation sanctified slavery of emptynessChristians lies casting the plague falling out of the grave the same rotten flesh of another humam sinner promises forgotten only blasphemy brings truth into the fire of an infamous force sick believers creepin' to be destroyedBegging for unreal cowards crying before a cross infamous return from their sins religious war contradiction and death the sorrow of an unknown destiny are comming to leave all saints behindMass suicide throught the emptiness of religious war souls of damnation - souls of impure this race shall creep and cry burn and die
