Secret Smile

Rascal Flatts

Oh, what a ride, what a perfect sky
To frame your hazel eyes
I'd scream on the inside but right now
It feels like I've been tranquilized
Oh, what a fool am I to be tongue tied
Sittin' next to her
The princess and the passenger
You touch the rain
And suddenly there?s waterfalls
Now everyday
There?s somethin' more worth fightin' for
Baby, you make the sun shine down
You make the sun shine down
You can paint the darkest clouds
And turn them into rainbows
You take your secret smile
The one that turns me on
Hey girl, you?ve been what I'm waitin' for
Feet back on the pavement
To the basement on the bright side of the road
Fumblin' my lines to a lazy cat
On the step outside her door
She opens up and I?m in the Polaroid
Standin' next to her
The princess and the passenger
Touchin' the rain
And suddenly there?s waterfalls
Now everyday
There?s somethin' more worth livin' for

Baby, you make the sun shine down
You make the sun shine down
You can paint the darkest clouds
And turn them into rainbows
You take your secret smile
The one that turns me on
Hey girl, you?ve been what I'm waitin' for
On a day like this
When the world is elevated

On a day like this
When I know just why I waited
On a day like this
When the world is elevated
On a day like this
When I know just why I waited
Baby, you make the sun shine down
You make the sun shine down
You can paint the darkest clouds
And turn them into rainbows
You take your secret smile
The one that turns me on
Hey girl, you?ve been what I'm waitin'
You make the sun shine down
You make the sun shine down
You can paint the darkest clouds
And turn them into rainbows
You take your secret smile
The one that turns me on
Hey girl, you?ve been what I'm waitin' for
