Skeletal Wreck

Thirsty Merc

My beautiful girlfriend is so ugly when she's on drugs
'Cos I'm not on anything
It sucks, I've got stuff to do with my day
'Cos I'd be with her otherwise, all the wayAnd then I wouldn't care about her sunken eyes
And I wouldn't give a shit about her fucked up vibe
But on the inside, I know she's enlightened
That's why she's talking about such mundane shit & acting frightened.
Her mouth is dry and her skin is cold
She's a skeletal wreck but it ain't her faultThank god she's got some pot to smoke
To stop the chemicals from chewing her face
Dare I say, to find some kind of fucking normal placeSkeletal wreck, it ain't your fault
Just break on through to the other side baby
Behind small pupils you can't provide a haven for one whole life to hideSkeletal wreck, just ride it out
The world will never understand
But I'm here to be your man and hold on to your lifeless handYou fucked up girl
Your path is yours
I'm no ... to your fuzzy friends
But to you, muffled and through the fence
This guy deals with reality, too intense
And reality is real, right? whatever you're on
Two billion bored teenagers can't be wrong
I'll zone out with you next time baby for sure
You looked so sexy on my bathroom floorSkeletal wreck, just sleep it off
You'll find a way to make it all stop
But just make sure you earn the bread and save yourself some braincells for next weekendSkeletal wreck, this brings us close
I'll wipe the bloodstains off your nose
I'll help you chose which day to lose baby
I'm here to help you fit the tightest fucking noose
