

Muddy Muddy

Los Chicos

I be ticking like a time bomb ready to explode
And when I do ain't no telling how far I'ma go
I got a hair trigger attitude, watch what you say
Beside I ain't shot a stupid motherfucker all day
I've been waiting for the right time and this is it

Let me introduce myself, mudface bitch
Just another spirit jumping into the soul
Of a well known killa that be out of control

Chorus (x2)

What are you gonna do
(another face on the totem pole)

When I get there
(another face on the totem pole)

Muddy Muddy

This is my time to shine, I'ma show you what I'm made of Strong like a dinosaur but silly as some trippy drugs

Smacking ya'll in the face with a laugh
Funny bone of the totem pole, do the math
Resurrected from the past on,

Learn the history of these warriors because we may not last long
The silhouettes you see are just thoughts of me
Ready to open your mind and feed it energy

Chorus (x2)

My microphone is like an eagle feather very extinct
Too hot to hold so don't even think about it
Can't nobody do it like me cause I'm just a ghost
And I don't need to breathe faster than the blink of an eye

Top notch speed, you can't see me
I guess that's why I'm so underground
Cause a native like me don't be fucking around

Chorus(x4)
